Obedience Starts in the _____.

Romans 1:5 says, “Through him and for his name sake, we received grace and apostleship to call people from among all the Gentiles to the obedience that comes from faith.”

Circle the word “the” that come before the word “obedience.”

There is a certain obedience we should be demonstrating in our lives that is the same obedience _____ demonstrated for us.

“Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered and once made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.” Hebrews 5:8

Jesus’ life on earth was not something he just fulfilled and followed passively. He _____ it!

It was a continuous process for Him to make the will of His Father His own..

“Going a little farther,[a] He fell facedown and prayed, “My Father! If it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Yet not as I will, but as You will,” Matthew 26:39.

He was on this earth as human, therefore, he demonstrated for us, not for his Father or for himself, the importance of obedience. Jesus knew what lay ahead of him and he knew the reason, and he still said, “as _____.”

“He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death - even to death on a cross.” Philippians 2:8

He learned obedience through the suffering that should have been ours, so that we would learn “the obedience that comes from faith.” (Romans 1:5)
